

1. Differentiation of black and dark gray leather imitation

Dark gray and black leather imitation should be distinguished. For this purpose a color sensor SPECTRO-3-50-FCL is used. The distance from the sensor to the object is approximately 40mm and the detecting range at this distance around 15mm. A proper differentiation is possible as shown in the screen shots.

